

THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

7 July 1976

Mr. John J. Crowley
238 Black Oak Drive
Medford, Oregon

Dear John:

Thank you for your most welcome letter concerning my new appointment. It will be a difficult task, but one full of challenge and opportunity as well as a few difficulties. The Agency is a great one, as you know, and building a constructive future is worth the best efforts of us all.

It's nice to know you are still consulting. As your travels bring you to Washington, let's get together. Meanwhile, thanks again for your kind letter; it means much to me.

All the best.

Faithfully yours,

E. H. Knoche
